

Mr. K. K Ramani is a well-known advocate of the city and Director of Lexinfotax (India) Private Limited. He has authored several books and is the president of several associations of the city. He is also a former member of several Government committees along with being a trustee at the Ramkrishna Mission, Khar in Mumbai. He is the trustee of the Homoeopathic Research and Charities and looks into the legal matters of the trust.